Introduction of the newly appointed Higgins Township Clerk.

Residents from Hoeztel and Kopko Rd, present at meeting, interested in asking RCRC for information and quotes regarding having said roads to be paved and maintained by road commission. The issued must be resolved directly through the road commission. Residents must attend the next road commission meeting that is to be held on Thursday, July 12, 2018 at 7:00 PM.

Statement made on waste increase by Waste Management by $0.13 for the recycling portion already included in the bill.

A motion made by Curnalia, seconded by Sullivan, to have a trial during this summer on sharing the dumpster at the composite site. All ayes.

Public Comment:

Interested person attending questioned the budget of the township. Another interested person questioned being charged taxes for Kirtland Property because Kirtland is in the process of being relocated. Curnalia informed them, that until the entire property is relocated, the taxes will, most likely continue to be included.

Motioned by Curnalia, seconded by Sullivan to adjourn the meeting at 7:54 PM. All ayes.
